

Think carefully about how many parts or fractions of a number make one whole one. For example eight eighths make one whole one.

1. How many ninths make one whole one?

2. How many tenths make one whole one?

3. How many tenths are there in four and a half?

4. How many fifths are there in three whole ones?

5. How many sixths are there in two and a half?

6. How many quarters are there in five and three quarters?

7. How many quarters are there in three and a half?

8. How many hundredths are there in six whole ones?

9. How many hundredths are there in seven and a half?

10. How many twentieths are there in two whole ones?

11. How many tenths are there in one and one fifth?

12. How many thousandths are there in two whole ones?

13. How many hundredths are there in one and one tenth?

14. How many thousandths are there in ten?

Answers

1. 9 2. 10 3. 45 4. 15 5. 15 6. 23 7. 14
8. 600 9. 750 10. 40 11. 12 12. 2000 13. 110 14. 10 000